Pocket Park Planning Meeting

Thursday, March 7, 2013 ♦ 6 PM

Spirit of Hope Dining Hall, 1519 Martin L. King Jr. Boulevard, Detroit

Join us for pizza & arts-based park planning. We are developing a pocket park and need your input. After a brief project overview, artists from the College for Creative Studies Community Arts Partnership will guide us through a visual-arts based visioning process. Be sure and bring your appetite and your best concise thoughts. For more information, call 313-496-4000 or email info@heritageworks.org.

The Intersections project is made possible with support from The Fred A. and Barbara M. Erb Family Foundation, The Kresge Foundation and the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs.

The Intersections project will transform vacant lots on the southeast corner of Martin Luther King Jr. and Rosa Parks Boulevards in Detroit into a pocket park that commemorates these great Americans and highlights principles they exemplified that are important to our communities. This is a fitting time, as February 4, 2013 marked the 100th anniversary of Rosa Parks' birth.
